By Harry and Edie.

That Sergeant First-Class Tolbert

H. Ferrell and his staff at the Regimental Laundry seem to be under the weather. We don't know very much from them any more, as most of the post fellows are getting married.

Private First Class William H. North lives more years with Uncle.

That gambling is an awful sin.

We know more than we ever did,
and if our lives we passed away there wouldn't be time to us to
on Sabbath Day.

But, my dear reader, don't come after me. Because I'm a sensible man, don't you see?

But just as sensible and don't you break;
And quite a few dollars you'll have before you break.
